Thank you for submitting the revised version of your paper. I am happy to say that the handling editor, Dr Jerry Husak, is satisfied with your paper in Functional Ecology.

Before your paper is sent to production, it will be checked by our editorial office. They will contact you directly if there are any minor corrections (e.g., typos, missing references, etc.) that need to be sorted before the paper goes to production.

Best wishes,

Dr Enrico Rezende
Senior Editor, Functional Ecology

Comments to the Author:

The authors have done a good job of revising the minor suggestions remaining. This is a very nice dataset and manuscript.

PLAIN LANGUAGE SUMMARIES

We encourage authors to use the plain language summary to publicise their work directly (for example, posting it on your blog, sharing it on social media, etc.)

AUTHOR SERVICES

Production of your article can now be tracked through Wiley-Blackwell Author Services from acceptance through to publication on all stages of production. You will receive an e-mail with a unique link that enables you to register and have your article automatically published.
