You have completed the submission process. You may print out a confirmation of your submission at anytime by visiting the "Message Center." You will find this link on your main menu. You should also receive an email from do_not_reply@allacademic.com. The email will arrive within minutes of completing your submission. If you do not receive the email, it may be due to one of the following issues:

1. Your email address is incorrect. If you log in with an email account you no longer use, you will not receive email notifications
2. Your email has very sensitive spam blockers that are blocking the incoming email. You can check your "junk" email inbox, add the domain "@allacademic.com" to your safe list, and talk with your email provider to resolve this issue.

Once you receive your email confirmation, please DO NOT REPLY to All Academic. The email will not be viewed or answered. For questions about your submission, or its status, please contact your division chair.

Here is your confirmation.

Dear Shujuo Chen,

Thank you for notifying us of your 2025 Annual Meeting participation for the roles below. If any of these are listed as having "No Response," you will need to log back in and accept or decline by Thursday, March 20. If you believe you have already responded to this role, it is possible that the submitters of the proposal have made changes to the author roles. Please log in and confirm your role.

Author: Accept

Please be sure to view the participation rules. Participation in the Annual Meeting is limited to two (2) appearances, per the participation rules, with some exemptions - including a third appearance on a theme panel. Please review the rules before accepting or declining your roles. APSA reserves the right to select or remove panels and participants and to change the date, time, and the format of a panel or presentation at its sole discretion. Review panel presenter FAQs.

Changing Author Roles:

All paper authors can now adjust the author and non-presenting co-author roles in the system. To do so, log into the submission system and click "Submit or Edit a Proposal." Under this, you will be able to change authors to non-presenting co-authors and non-presenting co-authors to authors. Please note that all papers must have at least one author and an acceptance from that author to remain on the program. The deadline to be able to edit these roles via the submission system is Thursday, March 20. Once the change is made, a new invitation will be generated in the system for the presenting authors to respond to. Please note that non-presenting co-authors are considered "inactive" roles, so they do not require an RSVP.

Declined Authors:

All authors that declined will automatically become non-presenting co-authors after the March 20 deadline. If you wish to be fully removed from the participation on the paper, please email meeting@apsanet.org.

| August 29 | Circulate your paper to all panel participants in advance of the meeting. We also encourage you to upload it to the submission site/program and APSA Preprints for attendees. |

If you are attending from abroad, please review our information for international attendees. Visa times may be delayed, so we recommend starting the process now.

We look forward to seeing you in Vancouver!

All the best,
